

Working Papers from the

Retirement Research Consortium

---

In 1998, the Social Security Administration awarded a pair of 5-year grants to fund the Retirement Research Consortium. The Consortium consists of two university research centers, one located at the University of Michigan and the other at Boston College. Listed below is a sample of the centers' recent research, which is available on the Boston College Center for Retirement Research Web Site (<http://www.bc.edu/crr>). The Working Papers can also be requested by e-mail (crr@bc.edu) or by phone (617-552-1762).

---

Portfolio Choice, Trading, and Returns in a Large 401(k) Plan

Julie Agnew, Pierluigi Balduzzi, and Annika Sundén, May 2000

401(k) Investment Decisions and Social Security Reform

Cori E. Uccello, March 2000

The Effects of Social Security Reform on Saving, Investment, and the Level and Distribution of Worker Well-Being

Barry Bosworth and Gary Burtless, January 2000

The Adequacy of Household Saving

Eric M. Engen, William G. Gale, and Cori E. Uccello, January 2000

Social Security Reform: Implications for Women

John B. Williamson and Sara E. Rix, December 1999

Lifetime Earnings Patterns, the Distribution of Future Social Security Benefits, and the Impact of Pension Reform

Barry Bosworth, Gary Burtless, and Eugene Steuerle, December 1999

Privatizing Public Pension Systems: Lessons for the United States from Latin America

John B. Williamson, November 1999

Social Security Investment in Equities I: Linear Case

Peter Diamond and John Geanakoplos, April 1999

Investment Practices of State and Local Pension Funds: Implications for Social Security Reform

Alicia H. Munnell and Annika Sundén, April 1999